3) NEXT WEEK

SUNDAY 3RD APRIL

10.30am HOLY COMMUNION led by Rev Pam McKellen

12 noon : CHURCH LUNCH. On Sunday 23rd we are having a church lunch...

YOU are invited!

It will be fairly simple with baked potatoes plus a variety of fillings at about 12 noon (coffee beforehand), then a choice of delicious puddings to follow.... There will not be a charge but we will be having a collection for medical work in Ukraine. We realise that some people may be concerned about personal COVID safety and you will be able to be as spread out as you wish!

If you're planning to come please sign on the list in the church foyer, and if you'd like to help we'll be very grateful. See Pam McKellen for more information.

6pm CHORAL EVENSONG Is back! with Director Steve Bowey and choir members from various churches in Newbury who revel in singing traditional church music and love to come to St M's to lead our Choral Evensong Service.

Rev Joy Mawdesley will be leading.

4) LENT FOOD BANK COLLECTION . We are still collecting items for the food bank in the church foyer . FB people will be collecting our supplies this week so please try and get your donation to us this Sunday..

Here is a list of essential items but I am sure that anything that is within date would be welcome

Tinned Meat, Tinned Fish, Tinned Soup, Tinned Fruit, Tinned Rice Pudding, Tinned Tomatoes, UHT Milk, Coffee, Rice, Pasta Sauce, Sponge Puddings, Instant Mash, Confectionary, Toilet Roll, Washing up Liquid, Shower Gel, Shampoo, Spray Cleaner.

Newbury prays for Ukraine in St Nicolas Newbury

Join Newbury in praying for Ukraine together in the town centre, Monday - Friday. The church is open 10am-3pm each day for silent prayer but we will specifically be praying for Ukraine between 12.30-1.30pm. There will be someone leading prayers from 1pm each day for 10 mins but please join us when you can.
