3) ST MARY'S ONLINE SERVICES

3 Sunday 28th February 10am Morning Service online.

This planned with the hope that we might be back in the building for public worship in March.

Sabbath Sustenance will continue as usual for those who cannot join us on Zoom.

Those of us that were able to get together for worship last Sunday by Zoom, really appreciated the opportunity and would like to encourage others to join us.

4) LENT BOOK RECOMMENDATION from Ruth Tibbetts.

Ruth has suggested some might like to read this one: "The Nail" by Stephen Cottrell who was our Bishop of Reading but is now the Archbishop of York. "In The Nail, key witnesses describe Christ's crucifixion from their points of view. Each character considers the part he or she played in hammering the nails into Jesus. We learn how the Roman centurion was just following orders, and that Pontius Pilot merely obeyed the wishes of the majority. By vividly expanding these stories and others, Stephen Cottrell invites us to ask ourselves if we would have behaved any differently in those situations".

I am sure if you ring Steve at the Shoemaker's bookshop, he would be delighted to take your order on 01635 37836 or email at office@christophershoemaker.org.uk. It's around £7 on Amazon but I don't know how much Steve would charge. But it would be good to give the bookshop your custom where possible

5) Did anyone else see this curious phenomenon? There was some at Greenham Common and some by Snelsmore Common.
